

Welcome to the 2010 Wearable Art Exhibition!

Nautilus, Chelsea Briggs

This must-see wearable art exhibition is a special presentation of the Port Moody Art Centre Society's annual Wearable Art Awards event.

The exhibition features 100 evocative, imaginative, and thought provoking creations for the human body on display at 11 locations in and around the City of the Arts, Port Moody, BC. The works have been designed by artists from all over the world using the most unusual combination of materials such as wire, egg carton, soldered brass, seashells, corn husks, recycled sweaters, and many more. Open February 5 - March 21, 2010, this unique display of art for the human form is easily accessible from Downtown Vancouver via public transportation (see map on reverse side for details).

New and Retrospective Entries The exhibition includes both new entries submitted as part of the 2010 competition, and retrospective garments from past Wearable Art Awards. The new entries – submitted to three categories including Mantel (sponsored by Pacific Coast Terminals Co. Ltd), Olympic (sponsored by the Port Moody Arts Centre Society), and Canadian Spirit (sponsored by the Georgia Strait) – are on display at the Port Moody Arts Centre and were juried by a panel of jurors drawn from the fashion and textile arts industry. Each piece was examined for its creativity, originality, skill in construction, and conceptual idea. The 2010 category winners, sharing $2,000 in cash awards donated by community and corporate partners, will be announced at the exhibition grand opening on February 5. The Pasta Polo People's Choice Winner – involving both new and retrospective entries – will be announced after voting closes on March 21.

Interested in Participating? The Wearable Art Awards competition is presented annually and welcomes entries from both Canadian and international artists. Since 2002 the event has featured over 250 works created by 150 artists. The 2011 Wearable Art Awards performances are planned for February 18 & 19, 2011 at the Port Moody Civic Centre Galleria. Visit our web site at www.wearableartawards.com for details, including the 2011 call for entry.
